The information on this website about securities has only been reviewed for compatibility with German law. In some foreign jurisdictions, the dissemination of such information may be subject to legal restrictions. The following information is therefore not directed at natural persons or legal entities whose place of residence or business is subject to a foreign jurisdiction that imposes restrictions on the dissemination of such information.

Accordingly, the information on this website does not constitute an offer or solicitation to buy or sell securities to residents of any jurisdiction in which such offers or solicitations are made:

- in which such offers or solicitations are not permitted,
- where Raydius GmbH is not authorized to make such an offer or solicitation, or
- where such offers or solicitations to residents are unlawful and may not be used for such purposes.

Offers or solicitations are expressly not intended to be made to persons in countries or jurisdictions in which the publication of information or the offer or distribution of the securities described below is prohibited. These persons are prohibited to use these pages. This applies in particular to persons with U.S., Canadian or British citizenship or with residence in the United States of America, Canada or the United Kingdom and also applies to so-called U.S. persons within the meaning of Regulation S of the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Those who access this website from a jurisdiction where the aforementioned restrictions apply should inform themselves about said restrictions and observe them accordingly. Raydius GmbH assumes no responsibility for the dissemination of the contents of this website to those who access this website despite the aforementioned restrictions.

Subject to the applicability of certain waivers from the pre-trade trade transparency obligations under Article 9 MiFIR, Spectrum MTF Operator GmbH ("Spectrum") will publish market data in accordance with its obligations under MiFIR. Market data published in accordance with MiFIR obligations are not directed to any person or entity other than using data and information for commercial investment activities, or acting as an employee, agent, manager, or the like of any company or acting on behalf of any other person or entity.

For complete information on the functioning, the structure and the risks and opportunities associated with the securities, potential investors should carefully read the securities prospectus, which includes the base prospectus together with supplements and the final terms as well as the registration document, before making an investment decision.
